Dear K, it seems a good time to reach out to you.

No-one speaks to me so I imagine the only info you all get is from people with bad intentions towards me/us.

There's no need for anyone to be angry at me.

I had no idea about Ana until July, and only from pictures of her they posted online!

And at that time I thought it had to be a lie because I had been terrorized by them so badly I could not/cannot believe anything they say. They said a lot of disparaging things about Ana.

They continue to terrorise me online. They pretend they're Vidal and pretend they're in love with me. It's such bullshit but sometimes I quite enjoyed the game, I admit. I'm sorry about that.

I was attracted to Vidal initially. I had a horrible PTSD reaction to his attention (which was also a lie) and I did reach out to him to explain I had been sexually abused as a child and so found it difficult to communicate with people I liked. I did that in April. But probably you all know that.

And no-one said anything to me, and they tried to destroy me. Nice people!

It was very healing for me to do that, and his reaction to me was very pure and loving, which didn't help matters, but anyway ...

So basically Anna has nothing to worry about with regards to me. Other Ana has no need to be angry with me. I can only assume I have been lied about egregiously once again because I've no idea why she's so angry.

If you want, we can get together, us women, and I will tell you my story because you will be truly horrified at how I have been treated by them and you cannot know the full story because only monsters would be angry with me if they knew it.

Let me know, I'd be happy to do that. I may need a translator.

If you want, I can also forward you the letter I sent to Concha after they tried to crucify me in June (which probably Ana was aware of, but OK), and the letters I have sent to the Generalitat about continued abuse, hacking my phone, videoing me at my hotel, etc. It's been an absolutely hell for me.

So, yes, I did get tough, and I will continue to be tough because their behaviour is absolutely unbelievable, and criminal too.

I'm not the problem. It was Domingo initially and now it is whoever has been managing the information.

In the meantime, please let the women know that I have no bad feelings towards anyone and I wish Ana the very best. And I see she has an amazing friend in you.

I hope we can move forward from all this macho chaos and destruction.

With love and respect.

Katharine
