Una actualización.

La mayor parte del terror cesó, pero sólo después de que le dije a mi profesor de piano que me habían estado aterrorizando durante más de un año y que tenía miedo de ir a un concierto si ellos estaban allí.

Obviamente ella hizo algo al respecto, pero nadie se comunica conmigo sobre nada, por lo que no estoy seguro de quién estuvo involucrado en intentar lastimarme y quién no, por lo que es muy difícil para mí saber en quién confiar. Sé que puedo confiar en Paqui y probablemente en la mayoría de las mujeres también.

Sin embargo, hay un esfuerzo continuo por desacreditarme en las redes sociales y causar malestar entre las mujeres.

Creo que lo está gestionando alguien del conservatorio, posiblemente un técnico en informática, y no me sorprendería que en los discos duros de su propio gobierno encontraran pruebas de técnicas de vigilancia encubiertas, incluidos, entre otros, vídeos míos en privado cuando tuvieron acceso a mi computadora portátil y mi teléfono.

Nuevamente, depende de usted si quiere hacer algo al respecto, pero ahora se está volviendo realmente ridículo y me comunicaré personalmente con las mujeres en unos días cuando tenga un teléfono nuevo, porque mi teléfono actual probablemente todavía esté pirateado y no puedo usarlo, y espero explicarles todo para que entiendan la historia completa.

Quienquiera que esté gestionando el proceso técnico, los grupos de WhatsApp o lo que sea, ha estado causando una angustia incalculable al mentirme a mí y a otros y crear discordia entre todos en el conservatorio de Denia.

Tiene que parar. También es una actividad criminal.

Como antes, confío en que usted tomará medidas o nuevamente no tendré más remedio que acudir a la policía.

Muchas gracias por su amable agradecimiento en este asunto.

Apologies for the English ... I hope someone can translate:

This email is following the recent complaint I made about a teacher and his associates - particularly the computer technical staff - at the conservatory of Denia to which I have received no reply even though the male violent behaviour against myself continues.

What has happened to me over the last 18 months is extraordinary, and a lot of it is actually criminal, but my foremost concern is that this teacher and his computer technician associates have unlimited access to children, mostly girls, and their mobile phones. The ease and hubris with which he and his associates hacked my phone and laptop, took photos and videos of me half naked when I was home alone and disseminated them across the town, tracked my physical movements with the access to my phone and used them to set up intricate coordinated "attacks" around town and elsewhere, situations which were designed solely to terrorise me, can only mean that he has been doing similar with the minor children and women he has unlimited access to as a teacher over the years.

Currently, his students are giving me the cold shoulder, which is most welcome in fact as I am going to the conservatory to study music and not engage in what can only be described as being the victim of coordinated misogynistic stalking and bullying.

So many things have happened, the "attacks" have been pretty constant since October 2022 but crescendoed around June 2023 and since. There's so many situations I could mention. For example, you might like to ask Domingo's students what they were told about me in October 2023 with regards to a very subtle tweet I posted on one of my accounts which was misinterpreted by him as me asking someone to travel somewhere in a romantic sense with me. Something he also mistakenly believed he did with me in December 2014 when I asked him to visit London with me as a friend, and he lied to the conservatory about being sick so he could come to London with me and miss the important departmental meeting. His students, in October 23, after I posted this misinterpreted tweet, came up to me in choir class and asked me directly about the trip I was going on with a boy and laughed and giggled as if they had been told something salacious about it, which was absolutely ridiculous. But this is the kind of thing that has been going on constantly. Teachers should not be playing these sorts of games with their students. Are there no rules teachers have to follow with respect to their behaviour towards students and minors or is Domingo Cano somehow exempt from them?

He has control of WhatsApp groups with his students, he instructs them to spy on me and report back to him, and there is a very famous WhatsApp group that either himself or the computer technician is managing which publicises my tweets to the members, but only tweets they have deemed interesting for whatever reason. This is the definition of stalking and is extremely concerning that public civil servants would have no qualms about doing this to a student. Everyone knows about this group.

The interest has dropped off recently, which is welcome, but they still have access to my tweets and are sharing some of them. I can tell because you can see which tweets people are translating and then they all heard about it later. Many of my tweets that have been disseminated throughout the conservatory staff and beyond are misinterpreted and caused teachers to be extremely angry with me.

You might like to ask them how they know about extremely private health matters I only ever told Google!?

They have been utterly obsessed with me. It's astonishing behaviour, totally unacceptable from civil servants responsible for minors.

I am extremely concerned for the safety and dignity of the young girls he is responsible for as there can be no way I am the only victim. I also cannot believe I am the only person to ever complain about this sort of behaviour which was designed to destroy me, to frighten me into leaving and never return.

A teacher who propositions a student romantically and gets turned down and becomes so upset they have to terrorise this students for more than 10 years should not be anywhere near women or children. It is gender abuse.

The way Domingo Cano spoke about the school girls walking past us in the street as we were having coffee one afternoon after class in October 2014 alerted me immediately to the fact that Domingo Cano has an extremely troubling over-sexualised view of schoolgirls alongside his appallingly low view of women in general.

He is often seen in town chaperoning his young girl students and, in my view, he should be nowhere near young girls or have the unfettered access to their phones that he has been enjoying for many years.

I hope you will take some of what I am saying seriously, this is a very serious matter, and has caused me enormous distress and stress.

I suspect if you checked any of these men's hard drives you would find concerning material. And if you check historical complaints you will most likely find a couple of complaints about him that are similar to my experience.

I don't want to go to the police but if it continues I will eventually have no choice. However, I think my next port of call will be the media as it is such an astonishing story and I would say extremely interesting to the public.

Please let me know if you need any further information.
