Hello

We are not yet trying to extract everything to be analyzed, we are a little behind since last week we were summoned for the ratification of several trials and we are finishing those cases, that is why the delay

We have many previous cases that have been activated now by the trials and we need to finish them, hopefully this week we can give you more information.

Although this week there is also one less day of work due to the holiday

All the best

Thank you

Hello good

We are working on it, this week we will complete extractions and deep analysis, we are very behind due to other previous cases that have been delayed.

Está bien que venga el próximo lunes... pero el jueves por la noche sería mejor... por favor, házmelo saber.

Gracias.

Además, me pregunto si también podrías reformatear la computadora portátil y ponerle Ubuntu, porque es un poco desordenado en este momento. Gracias <3

It's OK for me to come next Monday ... but Thursday evening would be better ... please let me know.

Thank you.

Also, I'm wondering if you could also just reformat the laptop drives and put Ubuntu on it, because it's a bit of a mess right now? Thank you <3

Hello good

If you can come on Thursday if you want, we are open from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 4:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

If you want, once we clone everything correctly, we can format the computer and install Ubuntu on it, but is the data inside it important? Why is everything erased when formatting?

Ok, genial, vendré el jueves alrededor de las 6 p.m.

Sólo uso la computadora portátil para realizar pruebas para que quede completamente claro. Gracias. Nos vemos pronto.

OK, cool, I will come on Thursday around 6pm.

I only use the laptop for testing so it can be completely clear. Thank you. See you soon.
