Dear Alex,

You may remember me. I worked as a Senior Technical Writer for you last year around this time.

Unfortunately, and very sadly for me, I felt I had no option but to quit my roll in June last year.

Apart from some tricky situations, I really enjoyed my time with zkSync, and I knew was going to be able to make enormous improvements to the docs. However, I experienced some unusual interactions which never really made any sense to me.

The reason I am reaching out now is because I now know for sure that I have been targeted, very maliciously, by local people for probably about 2 years now. They have caused me enormous difficulties online and elsewhere and these only really came to light the very week I quit last year. I can't help thinking these things are related.

It turns out they hacked me quite extensively and professionally, which I wasn't aware of at that time but was probably happening at 6 months prior to me leaving zkSync.

The manner in which I felt I had no choice but to leave was also strange and I'm now wondering if these people may have somehow been behind it.

They have used anything they can to discredit me, including my political and religious views, my sexual and romantic attachments, anything and everything. It has been extraordinarily unpleasant and stressful, and they may now be causing me even more trouble in the form of false accusations to police.

They have a lot of power and influence here and I'm pretty scared tbh.

It is all related entirely to me turning down a man here romantically 10 years ago. At that time I lost a job in a similarly weird fashion - I was ghosted.

So, I know you don't have to help me at all, but I am reaching out in a heartfelt way, and I was wondering if perhaps you could tell me whether you think it would be worthwhile sending the company an official request for information which may uncover anything untoward that may have happened around that time?

I do hope you're all well and I'm really sorry to have to reach out in this way but I'm getting pretty desperate now.

I hope to see you all at EthCC in July in Brussels. I'm happily still working in the field <3

With the very best,

Dr Katharine Murphy

Hi Katherine,

Thank you for your message - I'm really sorry to hear about your situation.

Will consult with our legal and security teams on what we can / can't do here and will circle back.

If you don't mind sharing your story, I would loop in Zoé, who would help facilitate this workstream.

Best,
Alex

Hi Alex, yes, absolutely, please do, thanks so much for the reply :)

Yes, and let me know if you think raising a freedom of information request would be helpful for this and I will do that.

All the best, Katharine
