Dear Katharine,

I've been through your CICA file and see you were refused compensation. I can't see that you appealed the decision. I'd like to try appealing it for you. I'm going to submit an appeal now but I need to know why you decided after October 2020 not to appeal until you contacted me in 2025. Did you just think you'd get nowhere or were there other events in your life getting in the way ? Did you feel ground down by the system ? Can you please let me know the reasons for not appealing please ?

Thanks,

David

Hi David, I wasn't aware I could appeal, I don't think.
This was a very difficult time for me also, I was being stalked by criminal gangs by that time as I was living in Belfast, the Northern Irish lot... I mean, it's just incredible what I've been going through all these years.
But yeah, I don't think I was aware I had the right to appeal, and this was the second time I had asked them about it also (first time I don't really remember.. probably in 2007 sometime..).
Thank you.
Katharine

I detail all stalking/drugging for criminal porn activities on the website as best as I'm able:
London pre 2020: is all there...
Belfast: 2020: 2020 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas
Lourdes: 2021: from January, then March - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas and onwards
Denia: 2021-2024: December - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas from the moment I moved in (spy-cam porn networked flat)
London: 2025-2026: January - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas from the minute I got back to London in 2025 in fear for my life..

So, yes, I've had a lot on my mind.
Good luck and thank you.
Katharine
