Hi everyone,

Still here. Sorry... Not.

I am now aware I'm the most sedated-and-raped woman the world has ever known... ever since I starred in North London rape-gang porn when I was 16 in 1989.

The porn-addicts (including my lovely father) grinned and snickered and loved it so much, they decided they would stalk me for decades to get more of it (it must have made so much money for Adams and co...) and the police seem to have been protecting them ALL THE WAY ALONG!

The Lockerbie compensation must have just delighted the gangs - they never got their sticky hands on a penny from me, but they did very nearly totally destroy me instead, and I have no life now, I'm homeless, stateless (imagine trying to get health care from a male doctor - Moorfields - who has a porn subscription with you being sedated and raped every night in it, and no-one cares), I can't work because I was a sex-slave spy-cam star at work too, including a mass sedating and rape session at a work conference in Bali!.. I mean... is this the world we're so desperate to protect now?

I'm an international sensation!

It appears I must be the only woman (of hundreds/thousands maybe - photos of the murdered women in my statement, as I mentioned, a lot) to have survived the Denia pornographer-murdering families working closely with Adams in North London, and certainly the only one to continue to complain about them year after year, knowing no-one intends to lift a finger to help me or the hundreds of other victims they're targeting right now, many of them babies, and even though they have tried to murder me on numerous occasions now.

It's extraordinary!

Well, as we go on "hoping I'll kill myself", I guess, I won't, and your MASSIVE problem might disappear - it's not going to though is it, it's kind of getting bigger and bigger - I'm (annoyingly, I know) remembering more and more ...

Worboys: 1996 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas

An ex-boyfriend was yet another sedater-and-rapist, along with his dad in Smethwick, and they must have found out about my "stardom" and decided they'd invite me up for a "party", which they did... telling me they were swingers.. I had no idea what they intended for me, or what they did... but I remember now.

A year or so later, Ray Archer invites me and a friend Sarah up to Muswell Hill where there's a male stripper performing (gross) and it turns out Ray knows the man, and they invite us back for a drink with him... and we get in the guy's car and his friend in the passenger seat is Worboys, and I don't remember getting to the bottom of the hill in their car before they'd sedated me. And I remember Sarah was not communicating seconds after we'd set off.

And Ray scurries off to New Zealand... I wonder why... but it looks like he was living in a sedate-and-rape house in Muswell Hill Queen's Avenue 36 I think where the gypsies also lived... you know, relations of Matthew Copeland, and his pal Ugly, who had also sedated and raped me in 2001 in Amsterdam with a bunch of greasy Spanish men from Denia: 2001 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas ... (and Ugly is famously my good pal now, everyone knows, cos they threw him under the bus in August 2024: August - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas) greasy men from Denia ending up pretending they were part of the trumpet-teacher porn-switcheroo team in 2022-2023... you know, the gang that brain-damaged me over decades so I wouldn't see that they are different people when they've spiked me with drugs, in class, with all the children studying there, at the music school in Denia: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas

So I wonder, is it STILL gonna be total silence???????

I do not expect a reply. As per usual.

Don't worry, I won't be coming back to stand in any snap election coming up soon, unless you REALLY want me to.

Thank you.

With the very best: Dr Katharine Murphy

Summary - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas - and just to let Alex Ellis at the consulate know February - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas ... this statement is STILL an investigator's goldmine, except now it is encrusted wall-to-wall with sapphires and precious stones, and built firmly on antimony

Hi Lauren, if you're interested ...

I will be going to the Spanish police in Madrid again in January 2025 about this. I went this March, in Madrid, after threats to my life from teachers and staff at the conservatory of Denia and their friends/family. I had been to the police in Denia previously (Feb 2024) after a threat of violence on Twitter. They told me there was no crime, they weren't interested at all in fact, and maybe even insulted me.

I feel much safer sharing all this - feel free to share yourself - the Denia criminals/voyeurs appeared to have hacked my network way back in 2014/5, and this was including when I wrote my statement to you. In fact, we're certainly talking about mass voyeurism in Denia, but possibly also at national and international levels via MAC spoofing on targeted people/women which then go on p*r*n networks, probably doxxed too (MAC addresses) ... information about the targets coming from the ISPs or telecommunication companies that provide the routers.

So, the "relationship" I was in with my piano teacher in Denia in 2014, which was just honey trap, and very sinister, including a threat of poisoning when I didn't want anything more to do with him because he was so violent and rude - this man is responsible for minors in his classes and has access to their phones (maybe I mentioned him to you at the time?) - well, he and his associates struck the p*r*n jackpot somehow when I reported CSA, they've been tracking me ever since I believe, and even had a part to play in the Denia apartment I rented initially online in 2021/22, which appears to have been used for exploitation (there were semen stains all over the sofa when I moved in, and people know things about me they could only know if they had visual access to me in my home) so I believe there are cameras in it (which I haven't been able to find).

They drugged me extensively (in class and at home, there's something up with the water/piping) with something that made me overwhelmingly sexually aroused - I am celibate since 2011 and have been totally uninterested in sex/relationships since then too - and other things which made me anxious and scared, while they gang stalked me at the conservatory (I returned to study the piano which I love) and in the streets of Denia. I'm getting a hair test done now from the UK, it goes 12 months back month by month to see what I was on. I was totally out of my mind!

It was going on much longer though, the "medicating", and even at class. Whatever they gave me at class in January 2023 gave me rhabdo, I could hardly walk down the stairs after class for the pain in my calves, and I probably have permanent kidney damage from that, which was a severe trauma, and the continued medicating.

I believe they have also been poisoning me with strychnine or similar at home through the water. It's tricky to find a way to get that analysed. I do have a sample for the police. It's just impossible to know if they'll bother doing anything and/or if I can trust them at all. I certainly can't in Denia.

Anyway. Sorry about all that. Horrendous isn't it. Hope you're well. All the best, Katharine

p.s. I was thinking about joining the Met again, I'm not yet 55 and I could join as a detective I believe now... I'm also pretty much completely over the PTSD which stopped me doing anything I wanted to for nearly all my life ... I also stood for election this year in Finchley & Golders Green for the Party of Women, and didn't come last :D

Also, I nearly forgot, they (the hackers whoever they are, probably a very large network) have the p*r*n from 1989 with me in it. No doubt. They said things, posted things, only someone who had it could know.

Apologies for the mass spam... it's impossible to know who to contact with regards to this ...

They have been communicating with me via false Twitter accounts (please read the thread). I'm sure they have a keylogger on my laptop as they post an account with details of messages I've just sent right after I do so. I just got an account with a picture of my brother as profile pic and RIP in the name...

I consider it a threat.

Robert (my brother) is in the UK. I wouldn't be surprised if these criminal gangs with close links to Denia, Alicante, Spain are also based in the UK.

Please forward to whoever needs to know. I'm in Thailand till January but available. Thank you.

Good morning Katharine,

I have just seen your email and wanted to reply to give you the correct advice. If you are making a new allegation of crime you need to report this and go through the correct procedure. You need to report this to your local police station where ever you may be.

The investigation which I was involved in was closed and any new allegations have to be reported accordingly. You can't directly email officers because things could get missed. As like myself many officers have moved departments/ left etc.

I hope this makes sense and I wish you well.

Kind regards,

Lauren

Thanks Lauren for your mail explaining I should go to the police in the normal way.

I did that. In Spain they dismissed me multiple times and told me to get evidential proof before they would examine my devices or test any samples.

The UK police came round in January when I got home and barked at me for 20 minutes about why there was nothing to report, no crime. They'd obviously been told to do that.

In the meantime, I'm reporting that the British and Spanish criminals of Denia and North London were flashing up child porn with me in it on my hacked devices, in order to terrorize me and let me know what they have. I have described what I saw clearly in my book.

So when you get hold of it, if you haven't already, you will know I'm telling the truth and not just a dreadful inconvenience to everyone, although I may still be a dreadful inconvenience to everyone I suppose. Perhaps that's going to be a really good thing.

I'm concerned my home network and family are targets and have been for years also particularly my mum who seems to be "entranced" by social media and is always buying some supplement or other online and is suffering all sort of ill health.

You may remember Jan, when I reported a man coming up to me on Trinity Road in a threatening way, and nearly putting his hand in my bag at Christmas 2018. He scurried off when my neighbour came out. The thing about this was I had a large wad of cash at the top of my open bag, next to my mobile, as I mentioned. You dismissed him as a drunk but it wasn't that. He was going to rob me. He knew I had money in my bag. There's only one way he could have known.

I've been watched for decades. Probably since I got the Lockerbie payout which is what Hazel and Sandra and their Spanish accomplices were after in 2006, and more recently because I made a lot of money working.

I suspect worse for me in Denia; a live spy-cam porn target they can interact with online, or similar. Really really evil stuff that pays for their fast sports cars they're all driving over there in the little town where there's no jobs.

My cousin Leah who got far more than me was honey-trapped also, I assume by the same gang, and they could have syphoned off half a million over the last two decades from her. I don't put anything past them. And you know exactly who Hazel and Sandra Smith are, and their brother, all of whom continue on, business as usual.

It's really really hard to hold this all on my own. I have God but I feel utterly overwhelmed by everything. I do not feel safe in the UK or Spain, or France for that matter. Indeed, anywhere they can get hold of me. I tried to get asylum in Israel but I wasn't able to access the website.

I tell normal people and they are SOOO upset by my story, in particular the fact that I'm constantly dismissed. I stop telling people because it upsets them so much. They can read about it if they want.

I'm tired of this but will continue to detail everything that happened to me in Denia in my book.

The other thing, of course, and most important, is that the whole town of Denia, perhaps the region, knows everything about me. I spoke to a Spanish government official and she spoke to her "sister" in La Sella and basically told me that everyone knows exactly who I am and why I was targeted, which is that they've all seen or heard about the repeated rape-gang porn I was in in 1989 with a bunch of black men gang raping me while I was sedated. Once I was on a table - I believe coming-to on a table was in my 2015 statement. Once on kitchen chairs - that too was in both statements. There'll be more.

Their backwards and severely misogynist society justified terrorizing me due to my experience. They all know. They've all seen the videos, likely too me masturbating in my flat when they drugged me with something through the water or otherwise that made me extraordinarily sexually aroused. Sounds incredible but I have no other explanation and it's weird no-one wanted to investigate something so serious, don't you think, when I had samples and the people involved work closely with children at the conservatory and indeed across the whole Valencian region as music teachers.

Also weird that the UK police third-party drug test I paid for came back completely clear on a hair sample and then lost the other sample because I knew it couldn't be possible and so asked them to repeat it. Adams again?

Remember. It's very easy to write women off, especially when they're being drugged and/or terrorized, but can you write off this sort of thing? Really? It's too big now surely.

The story has to come out eventually. When it does, is everyone going to look like they've been supporting the rape-gangs of Tottenham and by default British criminal gangs, as I mentioned probably the Adams Family which I have evidence again for from things (people popping up, saying things, things teachers in Denia told me, things they told me online, they're very bold) things I remembered since 2005?

I appreciate there may be an investigation going on, and yes they're still hacking this laptop where I'm writing now, but I can't go on much longer on my own. It feels like everyone's waiting for me to have a nervous breakdown, like you would imagine someone in my position would have probably had a long long time ago ...

That's not going to happen.

And the suggestion is to do nothing? To be happy? I am. To take dancing and music courses? I do this anyway.

To see a doctor? Not necessary.

To live through a continual hell born of woman-hating from rape-gangs in 1989 to porn-gangs in 2025, and it never ends?

Few survive this, statistically. But there are many 1000s of us; here and in Spain.

Hello again,

The porn-gangs of Denia and North London have tried to murder me three times by poisoning now.

I'm still here.

I guess everyone's waiting for them to eventually succeed, or for me to top myself after finding out my Northern Irish spy-husband father starred in one of their sedated specials in 2015.

I tried to apply for asylum in Israel but my computer is so hacked I didn't stand a chance.

Anyway.

I guess you know I'm writing everything I know online in the hope that someone might care one day about children in Spain, and child safeguarding generally again...

Oh, they brain-damaged me so that they could set up what they call "switcheroo porn" at the music school: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & loathing in Las Marinas ... perhaps some of you know about that sort of thing...

I have a lot of God, it seems.

With love,

Katharine

I feel much safer sharing all this - feel free to share yourself - the Denia criminals/voyeurs appeared to have hacked my network way back in 2014/5, and this was including when I wrote my statement to you. In fact, we're certainly talking about mass voyeurism in Denia, but possibly also at national and international levels via MAC spoofing on targeted people/women which then go on p*r*n networks, probably doxxed too (MAC addresses) ... information about the targets coming from the ISPs or telecommunication companies that provide the routers.

So, the "relationship" I was in with my piano teacher in Denia in 2014, which was just honey trap, and very sinister, including a threat of poisoning when I didn't want anything more to do with him because he was so violent and rude - this man is responsible for minors in his classes and has access to their phones (maybe I mentioned him to you at the time?) - well, he and his associates struck the p*r*n jackpot somehow when I reported CSA, they've been tracking me ever since I believe, and even had a part to play in the Denia apartment I rented initially online in 2021/22, which appears to have been used for exploitation (there were semen stains all over the sofa when I moved in, and people know things about me they could only know if they had visual access to me in my home) so I believe there are cameras in it (which I haven't been able to find).

They drugged me extensively (in class and at home, there's something up with the water/piping) with something that made me overwhelmingly sexually aroused - I am celibate since 2011 and have been totally uninterested in sex/relationships since then too - and other things which made me anxious and scared, while they gang stalked me at the conservatory (I returned to study the piano which I love) and in the streets of Denia. I'm getting a hair test done now from the UK, it goes 12 months back month by month to see what I was on. I was totally out of my mind!

It was going on much longer though, the "medicating", and even at class. Whatever they gave me at class in January 2023 gave me rhabdo, I could hardly walk down the stairs after class for the pain in my calves, and I probably have permanent kidney damage from that, which was a severe trauma, and the continued medicating.

I believe they have also been poisoning me with strychnine or similar at home through the water. It's tricky to find a way to get that analysed. I do have a sample for the police. It's just impossible to know if they'll bother doing anything and/or if I can trust them at all. I certainly can't in Denia.

Anyway. Sorry about all that. Horrendous isn't it. Hope you're well. All the best, Katharine

p.s. I was thinking about joining the Met again, I'm not yet 55 and I could join as a detective I believe now... I'm also pretty much completely over the PTSD which stopped me doing anything I wanted to for nearly all my life ... I also stood for election this year in Finchley & Golders Green for the Party of Women, and didn't come last :D

Also, I nearly forgot, they (the hackers whoever they are, probably a very large network) have the p*r*n from 1989 with me in it. No doubt. They said things, posted things, only someone who had it could know.

Apologies for the mass spam... it's impossible to know who to contact with regards to this ...

They have been communicating with me via false Twitter accounts (please read the thread). I'm sure they have a keylogger on my laptop as they post an account with details of messages I've just sent right after I do so. I just got an account with a picture of my brother as profile pic and RIP in the name...

I consider it a threat.

Robert (my brother) is in the UK. I wouldn't be surprised if these criminal gangs with close links to Denia, Alicante, Spain are also based in the UK.

Please forward to whoever needs to know. I'm in Thailand till January but available. Thank you.

Good morning Katharine,

I have just seen your email and wanted to reply to give you the correct advice. If you are making a new allegation of crime you need to report this and go through the correct procedure. You need to report this to your local police station where ever you may be.

The investigation which I was involved in was closed and any new allegations have to be reported accordingly. You can't directly email officers because things could get missed. As like myself many officers have moved departments/ left etc.

I hope this makes sense and I wish you well.

Kind regards,

Lauren

Thanks Lauren for your mail explaining I should go to the police in the normal way.

I did that. In Spain they dismissed me multiple times and told me to get evidential proof before they would examine my devices or test any samples.

The UK police came round in January when I got home and barked at me for 20 minutes about why there was nothing to report, no crime. They'd obviously been told to do that.

In the meantime, I'm reporting that the British and Spanish criminals of Denia and North London were flashing up child porn with me in it on my hacked devices, in order to terrorize me and let me know what they have. I have described what I saw clearly in my book.

So when you get hold of it, if you haven't already, you will know I'm telling the truth and not just a dreadful inconvenience to everyone, although I may still be a dreadful inconvenience to everyone I suppose. Perhaps that's going to be a really good thing.

I'm concerned my home network and family are targets and have been for years also particularly my mum who seems to be "entranced" by social media and is always buying some supplement or other online and is suffering all sort of ill health.

You may remember Jan, when I reported a man coming up to me on Trinity Road in a threatening way, and nearly putting his hand in my bag at Christmas 2018. He scurried off when my neighbour came out. The thing about this was I had a large wad of cash at the top of my open bag, next to my mobile, as I mentioned. You dismissed him as a drunk but it wasn't that. He was going to rob me. He knew I had money in my bag. There's only one way he could have known.

I've been watched for decades. Probably since I got the Lockerbie payout which is what Hazel and Sandra and their Spanish accomplices were after in 2006, and more recently because I made a lot of money working.

I suspect worse for me in Denia; a live spy-cam porn target they can interact with online, or similar. Really really evil stuff that pays for their fast sports cars they're all driving over there in the little town where there's no jobs.

My cousin Leah who got far more than me was honey-trapped also, I assume by the same gang, and they could have syphoned off half a million over the last two decades from her. I don't put anything past them. And you know exactly who Hazel and Sandra Smith are, and their brother, all of whom continue on, business as usual.

It's really really hard to hold this all on my own. I have God but I feel utterly overwhelmed by everything. I do not feel safe in the UK or Spain, or France for that matter. Indeed, anywhere they can get hold of me. I tried to get asylum in Israel but I wasn't able to access the website.

I tell normal people and they are SOOO upset by my story, in particular the fact that I'm constantly dismissed. I stop telling people because it upsets them so much. They can read about it if they want.

I'm tired of this but will continue to detail everything that happened to me in Denia in my book.

The other thing, of course, and most important, is that the whole town of Denia, perhaps the region, knows everything about me. I spoke to a Spanish government official and she spoke to her "sister" in La Sella and basically told me that everyone knows exactly who I am and why I was targeted, which is that they've all seen or heard about the repeated rape-gang porn I was in in 1989 with a bunch of black men gang raping me while I was sedated. Once I was on a table - I believe coming-to on a table was in my 2015 statement. Once on kitchen chairs - that too was in both statements. There'll be more.

Their backwards and severely misogynist society justified terrorizing me due to my experience. They all know. They've all seen the videos, likely too me masturbating in my flat when they drugged me with something through the water or otherwise that made me extraordinarily sexually aroused. Sounds incredible but I have no other explanation and it's weird no-one wanted to investigate something so serious, don't you think, when I had samples and the people involved work closely with children at the conservatory and indeed across the whole Valencian region as music teachers.

Also weird that the UK police third-party drug test I paid for came back completely clear on a hair sample and then lost the other sample because I knew it couldn't be possible and so asked them to repeat it. Adams again?

Remember. It's very easy to write women off, especially when they're being drugged and/or terrorized, but can you write off this sort of thing? Really? It's too big now surely.

The story has to come out eventually. When it does, is everyone going to look like they've been supporting the rape-gangs of Tottenham and by default British criminal gangs, as I mentioned probably the Adams Family which I have evidence again for from things (people popping up, saying things, things teachers in Denia told me, things they told me online, they're very bold) things I remembered since 2005?

I appreciate there may be an investigation going on, and yes they're still hacking this laptop where I'm writing now, but I can't go on much longer on my own. It feels like everyone's waiting for me to have a nervous breakdown, like you would imagine someone in my position would have probably had a long long time ago ...

That's not going to happen.

Dear Ms Murphy Lauren,

I am sorry that you are in a troubling situation and that your family and friends are unable to help.

I apologise but unfortunately your problems are not within my present political agenda nor in my area of competence, for which I apologise.

I am simply not able to offer advice or help and can only wish you an early improvement of your problems with the help of others.

miraculously, usually I'm happy ... sometimes it just gets so overwhelming ...
the worst is when I tell someone what's happening and they become inconsolable, usually women, usually because something i've said triggers them ..
and then I realize again how outrageous it is i'm dealing with all this all alone

And the suggestion is to do nothing? To be happy? I am. To take dancing and music courses? I do this anyway.

To see a doctor? Not necessary.

To live through a continual hell born of woman-hating from rape-gangs in 1989 to porn-gangs in 2025, and it never ends?

Few survive this, statistically. But there are many 1000s of us; here and in Spain.

I have God.

Hello again,

The porn-gangs of Denia and North London have tried to murder me three times by poisoning now.

I'm still here.

I guess everyone's waiting for them to eventually succeed, or for me to top myself after finding out my Northern Irish spy-husband father starred in one of their sedated specials in 2015.

I tried to apply for asylum in Israel but my computer is so hacked I didn't stand a chance.

Anyway.

I guess you know I'm writing everything I know online in the hope that someone might care one day about children in Spain, and child safeguarding generally again...

Oh, they brain-damaged me so that they could set up what they call "switcheroo porn" at the music school: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & loathing in Las Marinas ... perhaps some of you know about that sort of thing...

I have a lot of God, it seems.

With love,

Katharine

How to Fix It

The address may be misspelled or may not exist. Try one or more of the following:

- Send the message again following these steps: In Outlook, open this non-delivery report (NDR) and choose Send Again from the Report ribbon. In Outlook on the web, select this NDR, then select the link "To send this message again, click here." Then delete and retype the entire recipient address. If prompted with an Auto-Complete List suggestion don't select it. After typing the complete address, click Send.
- Contact the recipient (by phone, for example) to check that the address exists and is correct.
- The recipient may have set up email forwarding to an incorrect address. Ask them to check that any forwarding they've set up is working correctly.
- Clear the recipient Auto-Complete List in Outlook or Outlook on the web by following the steps in this article: Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.10 in Office 365, and then send the message again. Retype the entire recipient address before selecting Send.

If the problem continues, forward this message to your email admin. If you're an email admin, refer to the More Info for Email Admins section below.

Was this helpful? Send feedback to Microsoft.

More Info for Email Admins

Status code: 550 5.1.10

This error occurs because the sender sent a message to an email address hosted by Office 365 but the address is incorrect or doesn't exist at the destination domain. The error is reported by the recipient domain's email server, but most often it must be fixed by the person who sent the message. If the steps in the How to Fix It section above don't fix the problem, and you're the email admin for the recipient, try one or more of the following:

The email address exists and is correct - Confirm that the recipient address exists, is correct, and is accepting messages.

Synchronize your directories - If you have a hybrid environment and are using directory synchronization make sure the recipient's email address is synced correctly in both Office 365 and in your on-premises directory.

Errant forwarding rule - Check for forwarding rules that aren't behaving as expected. Forwarding can be set up by an admin via mail flow rules or mailbox forwarding address settings, or by the recipient via the Inbox Rules feature.

Recipient has a valid license - Make sure the recipient has an Office 365 license assigned to them. The recipient's email admin can use the Office 365 admin center to assign a license (Users > Active Users > select the recipient > Assigned License > Edit).

Mail flow settings and MX records are not correct - Misconfigured mail flow or MX record settings can cause this error. Check your Office 365 mail flow settings to make sure your domain and any mail flow connectors are set up correctly. Also, work with your domain registrar to make sure the MX records for your domain are configured correctly.

For more information and additional tips to fix this issue, see Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.10 in Office 365.

Subject: Worboys now... it's just getting worse and worse.. please forward to the PRESS

Hi everyone,

Still here. Sorry... Not.

I am now aware I'm the most sedated-and-raped woman the world has ever known... ever since I starred in North London rape-gang porn when I was 16 in 1989.

The porn-addicts (including my lovely father) grinned and snickered and loved it so much, they decided they would stalk me for decades to get more of it (it must have made so much money for Adams and co...) and the police seem to have been protecting them ALL THE WAY ALONG!

The Lockerbie compensation must have just delighted the gangs - they never got their sticky hands on a penny from me, but they did very nearly totally destroy me instead, and I have no life now, I'm homeless, stateless (imagine trying to get health care from a male doctor - Moorfields - who has a porn subscription with you being sedated and raped every night in it, and no-one cares), I can't work because I was a sex-slave spy-cam star at work too, including a mass sedating and rape session at a work conference in Bali!.. I mean... is this the world we're so desperate to protect now?

I'm an international sensation!

It appears I must be the only woman (of hundreds/thousands maybe - photos of the murdered women in my statement, as I mentioned, a lot) to have survived the Denia pornographer-murdering families working closely with Adams in North London, and certainly the only one to continue to complain about them year after year, knowing no-one intends to lift a finger to help me or the hundreds of other victims they're targeting right now, many of them babies, and even though they have tried to murder me on numerous occasions now.

It's extraordinary!

Well, as we go on "hoping I'll kill myself", I guess, I won't, and your MASSIVE problem might disappear - it's not going to though is it, it's kind of getting bigger and bigger - I'm (annoyingly, I know) remembering more and more ...

Worboys: 1996 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas

An ex-boyfriend was yet another sedater-and-rapist, along with his dad in Smethwick, and they must have found out about my "stardom" and decided they'd invite me up for a "party", which they did... telling me they were swingers.. I had no idea what they intended for me, or what they did... but I remember now.

A year or so later, Ray Archer invites me and a friend Sarah up to Muswell Hill where there's a male stripper performing (gross) and it turns out Ray knows the man, and they invite us back for a drink with him... and we get in the guy's car and his friend in the passenger seat is Worboys, and I don't remember getting to the bottom of the hill in their car before they'd sedated me. And I remember Sarah was not communicating seconds after we'd set off.

And Ray scurries off to New Zealand... I wonder why... but it looks like he was living in a sedate-and-rape house in Muswell Hill Queen's Avenue 36 I think where the gypsies also lived... you know, relations of Matthew Copeland, and his pal Ugly, who had also sedated and raped me in 2001 in Amsterdam with a bunch of greasy Spanish men from Denia: 2001 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas ... (and Ugly is famously my good pal now, everyone knows, cos they threw him under the bus in August 2024: August - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas) greasy men from Denia ending up pretending they were part of the trumpet-teacher porn-switcheroo team in 2022-2023... you know, the gang that brain-damaged me over decades so I wouldn't see that they are different people when they've spiked me with drugs, in class, with all the children studying there, at the music school in Denia: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas

So I wonder, is it STILL gonna be total silence???????

I do not expect a reply. As per usual.

Don't worry, I won't be coming back to stand in any snap election coming up soon, unless you REALLY want me to.

Thank you.

With the very best: Dr Katharine Murphy

Summary - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas - and just to let Alex Ellis at the consulate know February - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas ... this statement is STILL an investigator's goldmine, except now it is encrusted wall-to-wall with sapphires and precious stones, and built firmly on antimony

Hi Lauren, if you're interested ...

I will be going to the Spanish police in Madrid again in January 2025 about this. I went this March, in Madrid, after threats to my life from teachers and staff at the conservatory of Denia and their friends/family. I had been to the police in Denia previously (Feb 2024) after a threat of violence on Twitter. They told me there was no crime, they weren't interested at all in fact, and maybe even insulted me.

I feel much safer sharing all this - feel free to share yourself - the Denia criminals/voyeurs appeared to have hacked my network way back in 2014/5, and this was including when I wrote my statement to you. In fact, we're certainly talking about mass voyeurism in Denia, but possibly also at national and international levels via MAC spoofing on targeted people/women which then go on p*rn networks, probably doxxed too (MAC addresses) ... information about the targets coming from the ISPs or telecommunication companies that provide the routers.

So, the "relationship" I was in with my piano teacher in Denia in 2014, which was just honey trap, and very sinister, including a threat of poisoning when I didn't want anything more to do with him because he was so violent and rude - this man is responsible for minors in his classes and has access to their phones (maybe I mentioned him to you at the time?) - well, he and his associates struck the p*rn jackpot somehow when I reported CSA, they've been tracking me ever since I believe, and even had a part to play in the Denia apartment I rented initially online in 2021/22, which appears to have been used for exploitation (there were semen stains all over the sofa when I moved in, and people know things about me they could only know if they had visual access to me in my home) so I believe there are cameras in it (which I haven't been able to find).

They drugged me extensively (in class and at home, there's something up with the water/piping) with something that made me overwhelmingly sexually aroused - I am celibate since 2011 and have been totally uninterested in sex/relationships since then too - and other things which made me anxious and scared, while they gang stalked me at the conservatory (I returned to study the piano which I love) and in the streets of Denia. I'm getting a hair test done now from the UK, it goes 12 months back month by month to see what I was on. I was totally out of my mind!

It was going on much longer though, the "medicating", and even at class. Whatever they gave me at class in January 2023 gave me rhabdo, I could hardly walk down the stairs after class for the pain in my calves, and I probably have permanent kidney damage from that, which was a severe trauma, and the continued medicating.

I believe they have also been poisoning me with strychnine or similar at home through the water. It's tricky to find a way to get that analysed. I do have a sample for the police. It's just impossible to know if they'll bother doing anything and/or if I can trust them at all. I certainly can't in Denia.

Anyway. Sorry about all that. Horrendous isn't it. Hope you're well. All the best, Katharine

p.s. I was thinking about joining the Met again, I'm not yet 55 and I could join as a detective I believe now... I'm also pretty much completely over the PTSD which stopped me doing anything I wanted to for nearly all my life ... I also stood for election this year in Finchley & Golders Green for the Party of Women, and didn't come last :D

Also, I nearly forgot, they (the hackers whoever they are, probably a very large network) have the p*rn from 1989 with me in it. No doubt. They said things, posted things, only someone who had it could know.

Apologies for the mass spam... it's impossible to know who to contact with regards to this ...

They have been communicating with me via false Twitter accounts (please read the thread). I'm sure they have a keylogger on my laptop as they post an account with details of messages I've just sent right after I do so. I just got an account with a picture of my brother as profile pic and RIP in the name...

I consider it a threat.

Robert (my brother) is in the UK. I wouldn't be surprised if these criminal gangs with close links to Denia, Alicante, Spain are also based in the UK.

Please forward to whoever needs to know. I'm in Thailand till January but available. Thank you.

Good morning Katharine,

I have just seen your email and wanted to reply to give you the correct advice. If you are making a new allegation of crime you need to report this and go through the correct procedure. You need to report this to your local police station where ever you may be.

The investigation which I was involved in was closed and any new allegations have to be reported accordingly. You can't directly email officers because things could get missed. As like myself many officers have moved departments/ left etc.

I hope this makes sense and I wish you well.

Kind regards,

Thanks Lauren for your mail explaining I should go to the police in the normal way.

I did that. In Spain they dismissed me multiple times and told me to get evidential proof before they would examine my devices or test any samples.

The UK police came round in January when I got home and barked at me for 20 minutes about why there was nothing to report, no crime. They'd obviously been told to do that.

In the meantime, I'm reporting that the British and Spanish criminals of Denia and North London were flashing up child porn with me in it on my hacked devices, in order to terrorize me and let me know what they have. I have described what I saw clearly in my book.

So when you get hold of it, if you haven't already, you will know I'm telling the truth and not just a dreadful inconvenience to everyone, although I may still be a dreadful inconvenience to everyone I suppose. Perhaps that's going to be a really good thing.

I'm concerned my home network and family are targets and have been for years also particularly my mum who seems to be "entranced" by social media and is always buying some supplement or other online and is suffering all sort of ill health.

You may remember Jan, when I reported a man coming up to me on Trinity Road in a threatening way, and nearly putting his hand in my bag at Christmas 2018. He scurried off when my neighbour came out. The thing about this was I had a large wad of cash at the top of my open bag, next to my mobile, as I mentioned. You dismissed him as a drunk but it wasn't that. He was going to rob me. He knew I had money in my bag. There's only one way he could have known.

I've been watched for decades. Probably since I got the Lockerbie payout which is what Hazel and Sandra and their Spanish accomplices were after in 2006, and more recently because I made a lot of money working.

I suspect worse for me in Denia; a live spy-cam porn target they can interact with online, or similar. Really really evil stuff that pays for their fast sports cars they're all driving over there in the little town where there's no jobs.

My cousin Leah who got far more than me was honey-trapped also, I assume by the same gang, and they could have syphoned off half a million over the last two decades from her. I don't put anything past them. And you know exactly who Hazel and Sandra Smith are, and their brother, all of whom continue on, business as usual.

It's really really hard to hold this all on my own. I have God but I feel utterly overwhelmed by everything. I do not feel safe in the UK or Spain, or France for that matter. Indeed, anywhere they can get hold of me. I tried to get asylum in Israel but I wasn't able to access the website.

I tell normal people and they are SOOO upset by my story, in particular the fact that I'm constantly dismissed. I stop telling people because it upsets them so much. They can read about it if they want.

I'm tired of this but will continue to detail everything that happened to me in Denia in my book.

The other thing, of course, and most important, is that the whole town of Denia, perhaps the region, knows everything about me. I spoke to a Spanish government official and she spoke to her "sister" in La Sella and basically told me that everyone knows exactly who I am and why I was targeted, which is that they've all seen or heard about the repeated rape-gang porn I was in in 1989 with a bunch of black men gang raping me while I was sedated. Once I was on a table - I believe coming-to on a table was in my 2015 statement. Once on kitchen chairs - that too was in both statements. There'll be more.

Their backwards and severely misogynist society justified terrorizing me due to my experience. They all know. They've all seen the videos, likely too me masturbating in my flat when they drugged me with something through the water or otherwise that made me extraordinarily sexually aroused. Sounds incredible but I have no other explanation and it's weird no-one wanted to investigate something so serious, don't you think, when I had samples and the people involved work closely with children at the conservatory and indeed across the whole Valencian region as music teachers.

Also weird that the UK police third-party drug test I paid for came back completely clear on a hair sample and then lost the other sample because I knew it couldn't be possible and so asked them to repeat it. Adams again?

Remember. It's very easy to write women off, especially when they're being drugged and/or terrorized, but can you write off this sort of thing? Really? It's too big now surely.

The story has to come out eventually. When it does, is everyone going to look like they've been supporting the rape-gangs of Tottenham and by default British criminal gangs, as I mentioned probably the Adams Family which I have evidence again for from things (people popping up, saying things, things teachers in Denia told me, things they told me online, they're very bold) things I remembered since 2005?

I appreciate there may be an investigation going on, and yes they're still hacking this laptop where I'm writing now, but I can't go on much longer on my own. It feels like everyone's waiting for me to have a nervous breakdown, like you would imagine someone in my position would have probably had a long long time ago ...

That's not going to happen.

I apologise but unfortunately your problems are not within my present political agenda nor in my area of competence, for which I apologise.

I am simply not able to offer advice or help and can only wish you an early improvement of your problems with the help of others.

miraculously, usually I'm happy ... sometimes it just gets so overwhelming ...
the worst is when I tell someone what's happening and they become inconsolable, usually women, usually because something i've said triggers them ..
and then I realize again how outrageous it is i'm dealing with all this all alone

And the suggestion is to do nothing? To be happy? I am. To take dancing and music courses? I do this anyway.

To see a doctor? Not necessary.

To live through a continual hell born of woman-hating from rape-gangs in 1989 to porn-gangs in 2025, and it never ends?

Few survive this, statistically. But there are many 1000s of us; here and in Spain.

I have God.

Hello again,

The porn-gangs of Denia and North London have tried to murder me three times by poisoning now.

I'm still here.

I guess everyone's waiting for them to eventually succeed, or for me to top myself after finding out my Northern Irish spy-husband father starred in one of their sedated specials in 2015.

I tried to apply for asylum in Israel but my computer is so hacked I didn't stand a chance.

Anyway.

I guess you know I'm writing everything I know online in the hope that someone might care one day about children in Spain, and child safeguarding generally again...

Oh, they brain-damaged me so that they could set up what they call "switcheroo porn" at the music school: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & loathing in Las Marinas ... perhaps some of you know about that sort of thing...

I have a lot of God, it seems.

With love,

Katharine

Hi Lauren, if you're interested ...

I will be going to the Spanish police in Madrid again in January 2025 about this. I went this March, in Madrid, after threats to my life from teachers and staff at the conservatory of Denia and their friends/family. I had been to the police in Denia previously (Feb 2024) after a threat of violence on Twitter. They told me there was no crime, they weren't interested at all in fact, and maybe even insulted me.

I feel much safer sharing all this - feel free to share yourself - the Denia criminals/voyeurs appeared to have hacked my network way back in 2014/5, and this was including when I wrote my statement to you. In fact, we're certainly talking about mass voyeurism in Denia, but possibly also at national and international levels via MAC spoofing on targeted people/women which then go on p*r*n networks, probably doxxed too (MAC addresses) ... information about the targets coming from the ISPs or telecommunication companies that provide the routers.

So, the "relationship" I was in with my piano teacher in Denia in 2014, which was just honey trap, and very sinister, including a threat of poisoning when I didn't want anything more to do with him because he was so violent and rude - this man is responsible for minors in his classes and has access to their phones (maybe I mentioned him to you at the time?) - well, he and his associates struck the p*r*n jackpot somehow when I reported CSA, they've been tracking me ever since I believe, and even had a part to play in the Denia apartment I rented initially online in 2021/22, which appears to have been used for exploitation (there were semen stains all over the sofa when I moved in, and people know things about me they could only know if they had visual access to me in my home) so I believe there are cameras in it (which I haven't been able to find).

They drugged me extensively (in class and at home, there's something up with the water/piping) with something that made me overwhelmingly sexually aroused - I am celibate since 2011 and have been totally uninterested in sex/relationships since then too - and other things which made me anxious and scared, while they gang stalked me at the conservatory (I returned to study the piano which I love) and in the streets of Denia. I'm getting a hair test done now from the UK, it goes 12 months back month by month to see what I was on. I was totally out of my mind!

It was going on much longer though, the "medicating", and even at class. Whatever they gave me at class in January 2023 gave me rhabdo, I could hardly walk down the stairs after class for the pain in my calves, and I probably have permanent kidney damage from that, which was a severe trauma, and the continued medicating.

I believe they have also been poisoning me with strychnine or similar at home through the water. It's tricky to find a way to get that analysed. I do have a sample for the police. It's just impossible to know if they'll bother doing anything and/or if I can trust them at all. I certainly can't in Denia.

Anyway. Sorry about all that. Horrendous isn't it. Hope you're well. All the best, Katharine

p.s. I was thinking about joining the Met again, I'm not yet 55 and I could join as a detective I believe now... I'm also pretty much completely over the PTSD which stopped me doing anything I wanted to for nearly all my life ... I also stood for election this year in Finchley & Golders Green for the Party of Women, and didn't come last :D

They have been communicating with me via false Twitter accounts (please read the thread). I just got an account with a picture of my brother as profile pic and RIP in the name...

I consider it a threat.

Robert (my brother) is in the UK. I wouldn't be surprised if these criminal gangs with close links to Denia, Alicante, Spain are also based in the UK.

Please forward to whoever needs to know. I'm in Thailand till January but available. Thank you.

I'm tired of this but will continue to detail everything that happened to me in Denia in my book.

The other thing, of course, and most important, is that the whole town of Denia, perhaps the region, knows everything about me. I spoke to a Spanish government official and she spoke to her "sister" in La Sella and basically told me that everyone knows exactly who I am and why I was targeted, which is that they've all seen or heard about the repeated rape-gang porn I was in in 1989 with a bunch of black men gang raping me while I was sedated. Once I was on a table - I believe coming-to on a table was in my 2015 statement. Once on kitchen chairs - that too was in both statements. There'll be more.

Their backwards and severely misogynist society justified terrorizing me due to my experience. They all know. They've all seen the videos, likely too me masturbating in my flat when they drugged me with something through the water or otherwise that made me extraordinarily sexually aroused. Sounds incredible but I have no other explanation and it's weird no-one wanted to investigate something so serious, don't you think, when I had samples and the people involved work closely with children at the conservatory and indeed across the whole Valencian region as music teachers.

Also weird that the UK police third-party drug test I paid for came back completely clear on a hair sample and then lost the other sample because I knew it couldn't be possible and so asked them to repeat it. Adams again?

Remember. It's very easy to write women off, especially when they're being drugged and/or terrorized, but can you write off this sort of thing? Really? It's too big now surely.

The story has to come out eventually. When it does, is everyone going to look like they've been supporting the rape-gangs of Tottenham and by default British criminal gangs, as I mentioned probably the Adams Family which I have evidence again for from things (people popping up, saying things, things teachers in Denia told me, things they told me online, they're very bold) things I remembered since 2005?

I appreciate there may be an investigation going on, and yes they're still hacking this laptop where I'm writing now, but I can't go on much longer on my own. It feels like everyone's waiting for me to have a nervous breakdown, like you would imagine someone in my position would have probably had a long long time ago ...

That's not going to happen.

Dear Ms Murphy Lauren,

I am sorry that you are in a troubling situation and that your family and friends are unable to help.

I apologise but unfortunately your problems are not within my present political agenda nor in my area of competence, for which I apologise.

I am simply not able to offer advice or help and can only wish you an early improvement of your problems with the help of others.

With all good wishes,
Baroness Nicholson of Winterbourne

miraculously, usually I'm happy ... sometimes it just gets so overwhelming ...
the worst is when I tell someone what's happening and they become inconsolable, usually women, usually because something i've said triggers them ..
and then I realize again how outrageous it is i'm dealing with all this all alone

And the suggestion is to do nothing? To be happy? I am. To take dancing and music courses? I do this anyway.

To see a doctor? Not necessary.

To live through a continual hell born of woman-hating from rape-gangs in 1989 to porn-gangs in 2025, and it never ends?

Few survive this, statistically. But there are many 1000s of us; here and in Spain.

I have God.

And I practice a trauma therapy which builds resilience.

Hello again,

The porn-gangs of Denia and North London have tried to murder me three times by poisoning now.

I'm still here.

I guess everyone's waiting for them to eventually succeed, or for me to top myself after finding out my Northern Irish spy-husband father starred in one of their sedated specials in 2015.

I tried to apply for asylum in Israel but my computer is so hacked I didn't stand a chance.

Anyway.

I guess you know I'm writing everything I know online in the hope that someone might care one day about children in Spain, and child safeguarding generally again...

Oh, they brain-damaged me so that they could set up what they call "switcheroo porn" at the music school: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & loathing in Las Marinas ... perhaps some of you know about that sort of thing...

I have a lot of God, it seems.

With love,

Katharine

How to Fix It

The address may be misspelled or may not exist. Try one or more of the following:

- Send the message again following these steps: In Outlook, open this non-delivery report (NDR) and choose Send Again from the Report ribbon. In Outlook on the web, select this NDR, then select the link "To send this message again, click here." Then delete and retype the entire recipient address. If prompted with an Auto-Complete List suggestion don't select it. After typing the complete address, click Send.
- Contact the recipient (by phone, for example) to check that the address exists and is correct.
- The recipient may have set up email forwarding to an incorrect address. Ask them to check that any forwarding they've set up is working correctly.
- Clear the recipient Auto-Complete List in Outlook or Outlook on the web by following the steps in this article: Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.10 in Office 365, and then send the message again. Retype the entire recipient address before selecting Send.

If the problem continues, forward this message to your email admin. If you're an email admin, refer to the More Info for Email Admins section below.

Was this helpful? Send feedback to Microsoft.

More Info for Email Admins

Status code: 550 5.1.10

This error occurs because the sender sent a message to an email address hosted by Office 365 but the address is incorrect or doesn't exist at the destination domain. The error is reported by the recipient domain's email server, but most often it must be fixed by the person who sent the message. If the steps in the How to Fix It section above don't fix the problem, and you're the email admin for the recipient, try one or more of the following:

The email address exists and is correct - Confirm that the recipient address exists, is correct, and is accepting messages.

Synchronize your directories - If you have a hybrid environment and are using directory synchronization make sure the recipient's email address is synced correctly in both Office 365 and in your on-premises directory.

Errant forwarding rule - Check for forwarding rules that aren't behaving as expected. Forwarding can be set up by an admin via mail flow rules or mailbox forwarding address settings, or by the recipient via the Inbox Rules feature.

Recipient has a valid license - Make sure the recipient has an Office 365 license assigned to them. The recipient's email admin can use the Office 365 admin center to assign a license (Users > Active Users > select the recipient > Assigned License > Edit).

Mail flow settings and MX records are not correct - Misconfigured mail flow or MX record settings can cause this error. Check your Office 365 mail flow settings to make sure your domain and any mail flow connectors are set up correctly. Also, work with your domain registrar to make sure the MX records for your domain are configured correctly.

For more information and additional tips to fix this issue, see Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.10 in Office 365.

Hi everyone,

Still here. Sorry... Not.

I am now aware I'm the most sedated-and-raped woman the world has ever known... ever since I starred in North London rape-gang porn when I was 16 in 1989.

The porn-addicts (including my lovely father) grinned and snickered and loved it so much, they decided they would stalk me for decades to get more of it (it must have made so much money for Adams and co...) and the police seem to have been protecting them ALL THE WAY ALONG!

The Lockerbie compensation must have just delighted the gangs - they never got their sticky hands on a penny from me, but they did very nearly totally destroy me instead, and I have no life now, I'm homeless, stateless (imagine trying to get health care from a male doctor - Moorfields - who has a porn subscription with you being sedated and raped every night in it, and no-one cares), I can't work because I was a sex-slave spy-cam star at work too, including a mass sedating and rape session at a work conference in Bali!.. I mean... is this the world we're so desperate to protect now?

I'm an international sensation!

It appears I must be the only woman (of hundreds/thousands maybe - photos of the murdered women in my statement, as I mentioned, a lot) to have survived the Denia pornographer-murdering families working closely with Adams in North London, and certainly the only one to continue to complain about them year after year, knowing no-one intends to lift a finger to help me or the hundreds of other victims they're targeting right now, many of them babies, and even though they have tried to murder me on numerous occasions now.

It's extraordinary!

Well, as we go on "hoping I'll kill myself", I guess, I won't, and your MASSIVE problem might disappear - it's not going to though is it, it's kind of getting bigger and bigger - I'm (annoyingly, I know) remembering more and more ...

Worboys: 1996 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas

An ex-boyfriend was yet another sedater-and-rapist, along with his dad in Smethwick, and they must have found out about my "stardom" and decided they'd invite me up for a "party", which they did... telling me they were swingers.. I had no idea what they intended for me, or what they did... but I remember now.

A year or so later, Ray Archer invites me and a friend Sarah up to Muswell Hill where there's a male stripper performing (gross) and it turns out Ray knows the man, and they invite us back for a drink with him... and we get in the guy's car and his friend in the passenger seat is Worboys, and I don't remember getting to the bottom of the hill in their car before they'd sedated me. And I remember Sarah was not communicating seconds after we'd set off.

And Ray scurries off to New Zealand... I wonder why... but it looks like he was living in a sedate-and-rape house in Muswell Hill Queen's Avenue 36 I think where the gypsies also lived... you know, relations of Matthew Copeland, and his pal Ugly, who had also sedated and raped me in 2001 in Amsterdam with a bunch of greasy Spanish men from Denia: 2001 - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas ... (and Ugly is famously my good pal now, everyone knows, cos they threw him under the bus in August 2024: August - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas) greasy men from Denia ending up pretending they were part of the trumpet-teacher porn-switcheroo team in 2022-2023... you know, the gang that brain-damaged me over decades so I wouldn't see that they are different people when they've spiked me with drugs, in class, with all the children studying there, at the music school in Denia: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas

So I wonder, is it STILL gonna be total silence???????

I do not expect a reply. As per usual.

Don't worry, I won't be coming back to stand in any snap election coming up soon, unless you REALLY want me to.

Thank you.

With the very best: Dr Katharine Murphy

Summary - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas - and just to let Alex Ellis at the consulate know February - Fear & Loathing in Las Marinas ... this statement is STILL an investigator's goldmine, except now it is encrusted wall-to-wall with sapphires and precious stones, and built firmly on antimony

Hi Lauren, if you're interested ...

I will be going to the Spanish police in Madrid again in January 2025 about this. I went this March, in Madrid, after threats to my life from teachers and staff at the conservatory of Denia and their friends/family. I had been to the police in Denia previously (Feb 2024) after a threat of violence on Twitter. They told me there was no crime, they weren't interested at all in fact, and maybe even insulted me.

I feel much safer sharing all this - feel free to share yourself - the Denia criminals/voyeurs appeared to have hacked my network way back in 2014/5, and this was including when I wrote my statement to you. In fact, we're certainly talking about mass voyeurism in Denia, but possibly also at national and international levels via MAC spoofing on targeted people/women which then go on p*r*n networks, probably doxxed too (MAC addresses) ... information about the targets coming from the ISPs or telecommunication companies that provide the routers.

So, the "relationship" I was in with my piano teacher in Denia in 2014, which was just honey trap, and very sinister, including a threat of poisoning when I didn't want anything more to do with him because he was so violent and rude - this man is responsible for minors in his classes and has access to their phones (maybe I mentioned him to you at the time?) - well, he and his associates struck the p*r*n jackpot somehow when I reported CSA, they've been tracking me ever since I believe, and even had a part to play in the Denia apartment I rented initially online in 2021/22, which appears to have been used for exploitation (there were semen stains all over the sofa when I moved in, and people know things about me they could only know if they had visual access to me in my home) so I believe there are cameras in it (which I haven't been able to find).

They drugged me extensively (in class and at home, there's something up with the water/piping) with something that made me overwhelmingly sexually aroused - I am celibate since 2011 and have been totally uninterested in sex/relationships since then too - and other things which made me anxious and scared, while they gang stalked me at the conservatory (I returned to study the piano which I love) and in the streets of Denia. I'm getting a hair test done now from the UK, it goes 12 months back month by month to see what I was on. I was totally out of my mind!

It was going on much longer though, the "medicating", and even at class. Whatever they gave me at class in January 2023 gave me rhabdo, I could hardly walk down the stairs after class for the pain in my calves, and I probably have permanent kidney damage from that, which was a severe trauma, and the continued medicating.

I believe they have also been poisoning me with strychnine or similar at home through the water. It's tricky to find a way to get that analysed. I do have a sample for the police. It's just impossible to know if they'll bother doing anything and/or if I can trust them at all. I certainly can't in Denia.

Anyway. Sorry about all that. Horrendous isn't it. Hope you're well. All the best, Katharine

p.s. I was thinking about joining the Met again, I'm not yet 55 and I could join as a detective I believe now... I'm also pretty much completely over the PTSD which stopped me doing anything I wanted to for nearly all my life ... I also stood for election this year in Finchley & Golders Green for the Party of Women, and didn't come last :D

Also, I nearly forgot, they (the hackers whoever they are, probably a very large network) have the p*r*n from 1989 with me in it. No doubt. They said things, posted things, only someone who had it could know.

Apologies for the mass spam... it's impossible to know who to contact with regards to this ...

They have been communicating with me via false Twitter accounts (please read the thread). I'm sure they have a keylogger on my laptop as they post an account with details of messages I've just sent right after I do so. I just got an account with a picture of my brother as profile pic and RIP in the name...

I consider it a threat.

Robert (my brother) is in the UK. I wouldn't be surprised if these criminal gangs with close links to Denia, Alicante, Spain are also based in the UK.

Please forward to whoever needs to know. I'm in Thailand till January but available. Thank you.

Good morning Katharine,

I have just seen your email and wanted to reply to give you the correct advice. If you are making a new allegation of crime you need to report this and go through the correct procedure. You need to report this to your local police station where ever you may be.

The investigation which I was involved in was closed and any new allegations have to be reported accordingly. You can't directly email officers because things could get missed. As like myself many officers have moved departments/ left etc.

I hope this makes sense and I wish you well.

Kind regards,

Lauren

Thanks Lauren for your mail explaining I should go to the police in the normal way.

I did that. In Spain they dismissed me multiple times and told me to get evidential proof before they would examine my devices or test any samples.

The UK police came round in January when I got home and barked at me for 20 minutes about why there was nothing to report, no crime. They'd obviously been told to do that.

In the meantime, I'm reporting that the British and Spanish criminals of Denia and North London were flashing up child porn with me in it on my hacked devices, in order to terrorize me and let me know what they have. I have described what I saw clearly in my book.

So when you get hold of it, if you haven't already, you will know I'm telling the truth and not just a dreadful inconvenience to everyone, although I may still be a dreadful inconvenience to everyone I suppose. Perhaps that's going to be a really good thing.

I'm concerned my home network and family are targets and have been for years also particularly my mum who seems to be "entranced" by social media and is always buying some supplement or other online and is suffering all sort of ill health.

You may remember Jan, when I reported a man coming up to me on Trinity Road in a threatening way, and nearly putting his hand in my bag at Christmas 2018. He scurried off when my neighbour came out. The thing about this was I had a large wad of cash at the top of my open bag, next to my mobile, as I mentioned. You dismissed him as a drunk but it wasn't that. He was going to rob me. He knew I had money in my bag. There's only one way he could have known.

I've been watched for decades. Probably since I got the Lockerbie payout which is what Hazel and Sandra and their Spanish accomplices were after in 2006, and more recently because I made a lot of money working.

I suspect worse for me in Denia; a live spy-cam porn target they can interact with online, or similar. Really really evil stuff that pays for their fast sports cars they're all driving over there in the little town where there's no jobs.

My cousin Leah who got far more than me was honey-trapped also, I assume by the same gang, and they could have syphoned off half a million over the last two decades from her. I don't put anything past them. And you know exactly who Hazel and Sandra Smith are, and their brother, all of whom continue on, business as usual.

It's really really hard to hold this all on my own. I have God but I feel utterly overwhelmed by everything. I do not feel safe in the UK or Spain, or France for that matter. Indeed, anywhere they can get hold of me. I tried to get asylum in Israel but I wasn't able to access the website.

I tell normal people and they are SOOO upset by my story, in particular the fact that I'm constantly dismissed. I stop telling people because it upsets them so much. They can read about it if they want.

I'm tired of this but will continue to detail everything that happened to me in Denia in my book.

The other thing, of course, and most important, is that the whole town of Denia, perhaps the region, knows everything about me. I spoke to a Spanish government official and she spoke to her "sister" in La Sella and basically told me that everyone knows exactly who I am and why I was targeted, which is that they've all seen or heard about the repeated rape-gang porn I was in in 1989 with a bunch of black men gang raping me while I was sedated. Once I was on a table - I believe coming-to on a table was in my 2015 statement. Once on kitchen chairs - that too was in both statements. There'll be more.

Their backwards and severely misogynist society justified terrorizing me due to my experience. They all know. They've all seen the videos, likely too me masturbating in my flat when they drugged me with something through the water or otherwise that made me extraordinarily sexually aroused. Sounds incredible but I have no other explanation and it's weird no-one wanted to investigate something so serious, don't you think, when I had samples and the people involved work closely with children at the conservatory and indeed across the whole Valencian region as music teachers.

Also weird that the UK police third-party drug test I paid for came back completely clear on a hair sample and then lost the other sample because I knew it couldn't be possible and so asked them to repeat it. Adams again?

Remember. It's very easy to write women off, especially when they're being drugged and/or terrorized, but can you write off this sort of thing? Really? It's too big now surely.

The story has to come out eventually. When it does, is everyone going to look like they've been supporting the rape-gangs of Tottenham and by default British criminal gangs, as I mentioned probably the Adams Family which I have evidence again for from things (people popping up, saying things, things teachers in Denia told me, things they told me online, they're very bold) things I remembered since 2005?

I appreciate there may be an investigation going on, and yes they're still hacking this laptop where I'm writing now, but I can't go on much longer on my own. It feels like everyone's waiting for me to have a nervous breakdown, like you would imagine someone in my position would have probably had a long long time ago ...

That's not going to happen.

Dear Ms Murphy Lauren,

I am sorry that you are in a troubling situation and that your family and friends are unable to help.

I apologise but unfortunately your problems are not within my present political agenda nor in my area of competence, for which I apologise. I am simply not able to offer advice or help and can only wish you an early improvement of your problems with the help of others.

And the suggestion is to do nothing? To be happy? I am. To take dancing and music courses? I do this anyway.

To see a doctor? Not necessary.

To live through a continual hell born of woman-hating from rape-gangs in 1989 to porn-gangs in 2025, and it never ends?

Hello again,

The porn-gangs of Denia and North London have tried to murder me three times by poisoning now.

I'm still here.

I guess everyone's waiting for them to eventually succeed, or for me to top myself after finding out my Northern Irish spy-husband father starred in one of their sedated specials in 2015.

I tried to apply for asylum in Israel but my computer is so hacked I didn't stand a chance.

Anyway.

I guess you know I'm writing everything I know online in the hope that someone might care one day about children in Spain, and child safeguarding generally again...

Oh, they brain-damaged me so that they could set up what they call "switcheroo porn" at the music school: Vidal Sastre Sanchez Hornero - Fear & loathing in Las Marinas ... perhaps some of you know about that sort of thing...

I have a lot of God, it seems.

With love,

Katharine

Hi Lauren, if you're interested ...

I will be going to the Spanish police in Madrid again in January 2025 about this. I went this March, in Madrid, after threats to my life from teachers and staff at the conservatory of Denia and their friends/family. I had been to the police in Denia previously (Feb 2024) after a threat of violence on Twitter. They told me there was no crime, they weren't interested at all in fact, and maybe even insulted me.

I feel much safer sharing all this - feel free to share yourself - the Denia criminals/voyeurs appeared to have hacked my network way back in 2014/5, and this was including when I wrote my statement to you. In fact, we're certainly talking about mass voyeurism in Denia, but possibly also at national and international levels via MAC spoofing on targeted people/women which then go on p*rn networks, probably doxxed too (MAC addresses) ... information about the targets coming from the ISPs or telecommunication companies that provide the routers.

So, the "relationship" I was in with my piano teacher in Denia in 2014, which was just honey trap, and very sinister, including a threat of poisoning when I didn't want anything more to do with him because he was so violent and rude - this man is responsible for minors in his classes and has access to their phones (maybe I mentioned him to you at the time?) - well, he and his associates struck the p*rn jackpot somehow when I reported CSA, they've been tracking me ever since I believe, and even had a part to play in the Denia apartment I rented initially online in 2021/22, which appears to have been used for exploitation (there were semen stains all over the sofa when I moved in, and people know things about me they could only know if they had visual access to me in my home) so I believe there are cameras in it (which I haven't been able to find).

They drugged me extensively (in class and at home, there's something up with the water/piping) with something that made me overwhelmingly sexually aroused - I am celibate since 2011 and have been totally uninterested in sex/relationships since then too - and other things which made me anxious and scared, while they gang stalked me at the conservatory (I returned to study the piano which I love) and in the streets of Denia. I'm getting a hair test done now from the UK, it goes 12 months back month by month to see what I was on. I was totally out of my mind!

It was going on much longer though, the "medicating", and even at class. Whatever they gave me at class in January 2023 gave me rhabdo, I could hardly walk down the stairs after class for the pain in my calves, and I probably have permanent kidney damage from that, which was a severe trauma, and the continued medicating.

I believe they have also been poisoning me with strychnine or similar at home through the water. It's tricky to find a way to get that analysed. I do have a sample for the police. It's just impossible to know if they'll bother doing anything and/or if I can trust them at all. I certainly can't in Denia.

Anyway. Sorry about all that. Horrendous isn't it. Hope you're well. All the best, Katharine

p.s. I was thinking about joining the Met again, I'm not yet 55 and I could join as a detective I believe now... I'm also pretty much completely over the PTSD which stopped me doing anything I wanted to for nearly all my life ... I also stood for election this year in Finchley & Golders Green for the Party of Women, and didn't come last :D

Apologies for the mass spam... it's impossible to know who to contact with regards to this ...

They have been communicating with me via false Twitter accounts (please read the thread). I'm sure they have a keylogger on my laptop as they post an account with details of messages I've just sent right after I do so. I just got an account with a picture of my brother as profile pic and RIP in the name...

I consider it a threat.

Robert (my brother) is in the UK. I wouldn't be surprised if these criminal gangs with close links to Denia, Alicante, Spain are also based in the UK.

Please forward to whoever needs to know. I'm in Thailand till January but available. Thank you.

Good morning Katharine,

I have just seen your email and wanted to reply to give you the correct advice. If you are making a new allegation of crime you need to report this and go through the correct procedure. You need to report this to your local police station where ever you may be.

The investigation which I was involved in was closed and any new allegations have to be reported accordingly. You can't directly email officers because things could get missed. As like myself many officers have moved departments/ left etc.

I hope this makes sense and I wish you well.

Kind regards,

Lauren

Thanks Lauren for your mail explaining I should go to the police in the normal way.

I did that. In Spain they dismissed me multiple times and told me to get evidential proof before they would examine my devices or test any samples.

The UK police came round in January when I got home and barked at me for 20 minutes about why there was nothing to report, no crime. They'd obviously been told to do that.

In the meantime, I'm reporting that the British and Spanish criminals of Denia and North London were flashing up child porn with me in it on my hacked devices, in order to terrorize me and let me know what they have. I have described what I saw clearly in my book.

So when you get hold of it, if you haven't already, you will know I'm telling the truth and not just a dreadful inconvenience to everyone, although I may still be a dreadful inconvenience to everyone I suppose. Perhaps that's going to be a really good thing.

I'm concerned my home network and family are targets and have been for years also particularly my mum who seems to be "entranced" by social media and is always buying some supplement or other online and is suffering all sort of ill health.

You may remember Jan, when I reported a man coming up to me on Trinity Road in a threatening way, and nearly putting his hand in my bag at Christmas 2018. He scurried off when my neighbour came out. The thing about this was I had a large wad of cash at the top of my open bag, next to my mobile, as I mentioned. You dismissed him as a drunk but it wasn't that. He was going to rob me. He knew I had money in my bag. There's only one way he could have known.

I've been watched for decades. Probably since I got the Lockerbie payout which is what Hazel and Sandra and their Spanish accomplices were after in 2006, and more recently because I made a lot of money working.

I suspect worse for me in Denia; a live spy-cam porn target they can interact with online, or similar. Really really evil stuff that pays for their fast sports cars they're all driving over there in the little town where there's no jobs.

My cousin Leah who got far more than me was honey-trapped also, I assume by the same gang, and they could have syphoned off half a million over the last two decades from her. I don't put anything past them. And you know exactly who Hazel and Sandra Smith are, and their brother, all of whom continue on, business as usual.

It's really really hard to hold this all on my own. I have God but I feel utterly overwhelmed by everything. I do not feel safe in the UK or Spain, or France for that matter. Indeed, anywhere they can get hold of me. I tried to get asylum in Israel but I wasn't able to access the website.

I tell normal people and they are SOOO upset by my story, in particular the fact that I'm constantly dismissed. I stop telling people because it upsets them so much. They can read about it if they want.

I'm tired of this but will continue to detail everything that happened to me in Denia in my book.

The other thing, of course, and most important, is that the whole town of Denia, perhaps the region, knows everything about me. I spoke to a Spanish government official and she spoke to her "sister" in La Sella and basically told me that everyone knows exactly who I am and why I was targeted, which is that they've all seen or heard about the repeated rape-gang porn I was in in 1989 with a bunch of black men gang raping me while I was sedated. Once I was on a table - I believe coming-to on a table was in my 2015 statement. Once on kitchen chairs - that too was in both statements. There'll be more.

Their backwards and severely misogynist society justified terrorizing me due to my experience. They all know. They've all seen the videos, likely too me masturbating in my flat when they drugged me with something through the water or otherwise that made me extraordinarily sexually aroused. Sounds incredible but I have no other explanation and it's weird no-one wanted to investigate something so serious, don't you think, when I had samples and the people involved work closely with children at the conservatory and indeed across the whole Valencian region as music teachers.

Also weird that the UK police third-party drug test I paid for came back completely clear on a hair sample and then lost the other sample because I knew it couldn't be possible and so asked them to repeat it. Adams again?

Remember. It's very easy to write women off, especially when they're being drugged and/or terrorized, but can you write off this sort of thing? Really? It's too big now surely.

The story has to come out eventually. When it does, is everyone going to look like they've been supporting the rape-gangs of Tottenham and by default British criminal gangs, as I mentioned probably the Adams Family which I have evidence again for from things (people popping up, saying things, things teachers in Denia told me, things they told me online, they're very bold) things I remembered since 2005?

I appreciate there may be an investigation going on, and yes they're still hacking this laptop where I'm writing now, but I can't go on much longer on my own. It feels like everyone's waiting for me to have a nervous breakdown, like you would imagine someone in my position would have probably had a long long time ago ...

That's not going to happen.
